Information and advice is always available regarding weekend trips to London, car hire, taxis, sending of faxes, flight changes etc. Any expenses incurred are added to the participant's final account, which they will be asked to settle on the day of their departure.

WEEKEND OPTIONS

For courses of more than one week, there are several weekend options from which to choose.

- Option 1 An excursion to a place of interest such as the historic city of Bath, or the coast (many choices available), entertainment on Saturday night all fully accompanied by one of our trainers, and a quiet Sunday spent at the hotel, all meals and transport included.
- Option 2 Accommodation and breakfasts Friday pm to Sunday provided.
- Option 3 No meals or accommodation from Friday evening to Sunday evening, i.e. if you wish to go to London on your own.

Arrivals: Every Sunday at London Heathrow Airport between 14h00 and 16h00 hours. Participants are met by company transport. Our driver waits at the Information Desk of the appropriate arrival terminal between these hours.

Participants arriving by Eurostar will be met at Sherborne station.

Departures: On Fridays. Company transport is provided for flights from 1800h onwards departing from London Heathrow. This is included in the course tariff. There is no free company transport for departures on Saturday or Sunday. However, we can arrange a taxi to Heathrow airport which costs approximately £120 (cost price).
